

Come, Let Us Sing

Joe Henson, III

A hymn of Thanksgiving based on Psalm 95

William J. Kirkpatrick

1. O come, let us sing to our glo - ri - ous Lord from hearts that en - joy sav - ing grace.
2. O come, let us fol - low our won - der - ful Lord and hum - bly sub - mit to His plan,
3. O come, let us wor - ship our mer - ci - ful Lord for par - don - ing us through His Son.

We fall down be - fore Him to of - fer our thanks and bless Him with an - thems of praise.
for we are the peo - ple He shep - herds with love - the sheep who o - bey His com - mand.
He res - cues each mer - it - less sin - ner who turns and clings to the Cru - ci - fied One.

So, come lift your voice to our un - ri - valed God Who sov - er - eignly rules from His throne.
So, come and at - tend to the voice of our God Who or - ders the steps of the blessed.
So, come and give thanks for the fa - vor of God Who pours out His grace from a - bove.

He holds eve - ry moun - tain in His might - y hand and calls the vast o - ceans His
To - day, you must hear Him and soft - en your heart if you would in - her - it His
Our Shep - herd, our Guide, our Re - deem - er, and Friend will shel - ter us safe in His own, and calls the vast o - ceans His own.

16
rest, if you would in - her - it His rest.
love, will shel - ter us safe in His love.